

Immigration Price List

Our charges are based on the time spent dealing with a case. Our hourly charge rates are £250 plus VAT per hour

The following types of applications are covered by the above hourly rate:

- Applications for naturalisation or registration under the British Nationality Act 1981
- Applications on behalf of European Economic Area (EEA) nationals and their family members under the applicable EEA Regulations or Immigration Rules, including applications for permanent residence, residence cards, and registration certificates
- Applications under the Immigration Rules, including:
 - student and work experience visas
 - visit visas (for tourism, or visiting friends / family)
 - spouse and partners applications, including fiancé(e)s or proposed civil partners
 - applications for work, business or study under the Points-Based System;
 - dependent relative and family reunion applications
 - ancestry visas
 - other categories, such as applications on the basis of long residence

On average, this type of work takes between 6 -12 hours to complete. This means that on average costs are between £1,200 and £3,600. All figures are inclusive VAT unless specifically stated. We will let you know if it becomes apparent that we will have to spend more time on your matter than we have initially estimated.

The exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case. Such as:

- The amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider
- Which language(s) you speak
- Whether you are applying with other dependants

If you are able to provide sufficient evidence at our first meeting and clearly meet the applicable Immigration Rules, the cost is likely to be at the lower end of this range.

What services are included

The work will involve:

- discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you;
- giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria.
- if you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how, which on average takes 1.5 hours;
- considering the supporting evidence, you have provided, which we anticipate will take 1 to 2 hours;
- where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements of any witnesses;
- preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take up to 12 hours or more;
- giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

The amount of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents Disbursements (not included in costs set out above):

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as visa fees. We handle the payment of a few disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

- Home Office fees,
- Barrister's fees depending on the complexity of your case.

The costs quoted here do not include:

- Any Home Office fees for making the application. You will pay this to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
- Interpreters fees
- Independent expert reports
- Attendance at a Home Office interview
- If there is an interview and we do attend with you, there will be additional disbursements in respect of our mileage/travel expenses.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. Read the current processing times.

We will normally be able to submit this type of application within 2 to 3 weeks of you instructing us, but we will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

Please note the anticipated number of hours and fees are an estimate based on the facts above. All applications are likely to vary and of course, we can give you a more accurate estimate once we have more information about your specific case.
